Julia Banks Bio:

For over 60 years I've sung solos and acted onstage and am a published writer of pantomimes and plays, have also been successful in song-writing, have worked in Broadcasting and have also invented a word game that has been produced worldwide. Let's share some of my verse and song parodies, all written from my (possibly oblique!) view of the strange age we live in - and the age we have all achieved.

The aim is to have a light-hearted time together with some smiles and laughter along the way.
